

Ike Leaves for West to Pep Up Party Drive

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower left today on a flying six-day trip to the West Coast to put pep into his party's drive to recapture control of Congress.

His plane, the Columbine III, took off at 9:30 a. m. (EDT).

The President starts his first 1958 campaign swing with a speech in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, today.

Then he will visit Kansas and Colorado before going on to the coast for speeches in the vitriolic California campaign. He appears Monday and Tuesday in Los Angeles and San Francisco.

The concluding speech of the presidential tour will come Wednesday night in Chicago.

On advance of his own tour Eisenhower sent word to Vice President Nixon to keep on hammering away at Democratic attacks on administration handling of foreign policy.

Mrs. Eisenhower accompanied the President. She wore a blue dress and blue hat and carried a fur coat on her arm. The campaigning chief executive was dressed in a gray suit, gray hat, and blue tie.

The President forgot to duck and bumped his head as he entered the plane from the ramp. The collision knocked his hat askew but apparently did not hurt him.

The Columbine III was due in Cedar Rapids in about 3½ hours, or at 10:45 a. m. (CST).

At Cedar Rapids, in the heart of the farm belt, Eisenhower planned an informal talk at the National Corn Picking Contest.

Mrs. Eisenhower, making part of the tour with the President, will visit the Cedar Rapids school where she attended kindergarten.

From Cedar Rapids, the President and his wife travel to Abilene, Kan., for an overnight stay in the town of his boyhood. No formal speeches are scheduled there.

The Eisenhowers will spend Saturday and Sunday in Denver visiting with the First Lady's ailing mother, Mrs. John S. Doud. Mrs. Eisenhower will stay on for a time after the President leaves.

Except for a brief airport speech during the 1956 campaign, it will be Eisenhower's first visit to the Colorado capital since he suffered a heart attack at his mother-in-law's home Sept. 24, 1955.

The major battleground of Eisenhower's campaign tour is California. He will be there Monday and Tuesday, with major speeches in Los Angeles and San Francisco.

The final address of the campaign will be in Chicago next Wednesday evening.

There was no advance word as to what extent Eisenhower would deal with foreign policy on his tour. In any event, indications were he would leave it mainly to Nixon and other Republicans to fight back at Democratic criticism of that field.

Eisenhower, in a telegram to the campaigning Nixon, said "our side" must reply to opposition attacks on day-to-day handling of

Department Store Sales Increased

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Department store sales increased 2 per cent last week in the Eighth Federal Reserve District over the corresponding week a year ago.

The increase was shared in all major cities except Memphis, where sales fell 8 per cent. The Federal Reserve Bank in St. Louis said this is partially explained by a difference in timing of a sales promotion campaign in Memphis this year as compared to last year.

St. Louis and Louisville showed 4 per cent gains, Little Rock 7 per cent and seven smaller district cities combined, 3 per cent.

For the past four weeks all reporting areas showed gains, with the district gaining 4 per cent over the same period of 1957.

Five Indicted in Atlanta Bombing Case

ATLANTA (AP)—Five men were indicted today on charges of destroying a house of worship in the Sunday dynamiting of Atlanta's Jewish Temple.

Four of the five men now in custody and one still sought were named in the indictments.

Those charged with wrecking the structure are Wallace H. Allen, 32, George Bright, 35, Kenneth Chester Griffin, 32, Robert A. Bowling, 25, and Richard Bowling, 25. The latter are brothers Richard and Bowling has not been apprehended.

The grand jury did not bring a charge against Luther King, Jr., 25, one of five men are tied in the case.

Governor Is Lambasted From 3 Sides

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus was lambasted from three separate quarters last night by an actress, the Democratic National chairman and a Rhode Island senator.

Actress Tallulah Bankhead, whose father was speaker of the U. S. House, said the Arkansas Governor is "at the top of the list of obnoxious, awful Democrats."

Miss Bankhead, an Alabamian, said she could not endure such Southerners as Sen. James Eastland (D-Miss.), the late Sen. Thad G. Bilbo (D-Miss.) and Faubus.

At Providence, R.I., Democratic Sen. John O. Pastore, referred to Faubus as a "phony" and a "demagogue" and said his Republican opponent was "not going to let him (Faubus) around my neck."

From still another quarter, Faubus was described as having an "un-American" attitude toward Civil Rights.

Democratic National Chairman Paul Butler said Democrats will not tolerate in their ranks a civil rights stand like that of Faubus. He promised the Democrats would nominate men who stand "clearly and flatfootedly on the party's civil rights program."

Fishing Boat Crumbles, 3 Russians Dead

WICK, Scotland (AP)—A Russian fishing boat broke up and sank in a storm off the Shetland Islands today. Scottish officials said the boat was carrying three Russians. The boat was carrying three Russians. The boat was carrying three Russians.

The Russians insisted they should not be taken to British soil. The Scots then rescued the three men from the boat and landed them on the shore.

At least three Russians were known dead and Scottish coastmen feared the toll would rise to 22. The Soviet craft was believed to have carried a crew of 25. She was among a fleet of 30 Soviet fishing boats in the area.

Last Survivors of a Crashed Plane Rescued

AUCKLAND, New Zealand (AP)—The last three survivors of a U.S. Globemaster crash in the Antarctic were rescued by helicopter today.

At Christchurch reported the men were flown to McMurdo Sound.

Four others were rescued by helicopter earlier during a break in the bad weather that hampered ground rescue. The plane crashed near Cape Hallett Thursday, killing six airmen.

Earlier today a ground party got within four miles of the crash scene but had to turn back and detour around an impassable ice field.

The three men had huddled in the tail of the four-engine plane. They were in good condition.

Weather balked rescue attempts Thursday after the plane went down on a flight from Christchurch, N. Z., to drop supplies to U. S. bases in the Antarctic.

Two of the men flown out were injured, officials said. They were identified as Airman 2.C. Joel Bailey of Belton, S. C., in serious condition, and Capt. James T. Quattlebaum of Columbia, S.C., in fair condition.

The other two rescued men were not immediately identified.

U. S. Population Is 175,000,000

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's population reached 175 million at 11:08 a. m. EDT today, by the estimate of the Commerce Department's census clock.

The digits on the speedometer-like counter turned over with a clanking of cams and plungers before a small crowd attracted by a goodly lining of motion pictures and still photographers.

Vegetables Fruits Vie With Meats

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Bargains in vegetables and fruits counterbalance continuing high prices for meats in the nation's supermarkets and neighborhood grocery stores this weekend.

Fresh produce from nearby fields and orchards is still available in many areas. Poor growing weather curtailed West Coast crops of lettuce, citrus fruits, grapes and vegetables but so far this has had little effect due to nearby supplies.

Supermarket meat experts seem to have scattered their fire trying to find bargains guaranteed to catch the shopper's eye. A variety of cuts of pork appear slightly more numerous than offerings of beef, while turkeys and frying or roasting chickens are featured in scattered locations. Pork special are about evenly divided between cooked hams and less expensive fresh ham, pork loin and smoked picnic hams. Pork chops are 2 to 10 cents a pound higher almost everywhere this week. Veal chops are up a bit in a few sections, along with eggs, but other prices are mostly about the same as last week.

Outstanding vegetable buys include cabbage, onions, spinach, broccoli and potatoes. The big Long Island crop pushes potato supplies up and prices down. Cauliflower, brussels sprouts, Swiss chard and dandelion greens also are outstanding buys.

Good buys are lettuce, carrots, snap beans, parsnips, Idaho potatoes, sweet potatoes, radishes and green onions. Iceberg lettuce from New Jersey augments the California supply. Cucumbers and green or yellow squash are rated fairly good buys, while tomatoes, eggplant and peppers are more expensive.

Hendrix Tuition Is Increased

CONWAY, ARK. (AP) — The board of trustees of Hendrix College has voted to increase student tuition from $100 to $210 per semester.

Dr. Marshall T. Steel, president of the Methodist college, announced the increase yesterday. He said it will become effective next semester.

Steel noted that Hendrix last year received $75,000 from Methodist churches in Arkansas and that the college could expect $110,000 this year.

The college is supported by the churches, student tuition and by returns from an endowment fund.

"Showcase of Famous Brands" MODEL HOME

...featuring the "living core" separating the living and working areas from the sleeping quarters

IT'S OPEN HOUSE THIS WEEK-END!

Here is the home of your dreams... the home you've been waiting for — designed with so many of the "extra" luxury features you've always wanted but expected to find only in homes costing much more. We can arrange to duplicate this exact home or any of its variations on your own lot, or on any one of our choice locations. See, too, six variations of the "living core" design, available to you in a complete range of sizes and architectural styles to suit your individual taste and needs.

NEW DESIGNS!

Planned to match today's demands for gracious yet efficient living, with minimum upkeep and care. The foyer, a key feature in each variation, provides a hub for traffic, lets you reach any room in the home without going through other rooms! Your choice of styles—contemporary, modern or traditional ranch designs.

NEW IDEAS!

Newest colors and the smartest fashions in home furnishings will make you gasp with surprise and delight! You'll walk away with a hundred new ways to make your own living newer, brighter... new planter boxes, room dividers, new decorative materials for walls, in-direct lighting, built-ins of all kinds.

NEW PRODUCTS!

We combed manufacturers' showrooms in all parts of the country to bring you the latest, newest products available—new kitchens, new wall patterns, new bathroom elegance and utility, new closet walls and fixtures that let you adjust to your needs—and a few fresh from the research and testing laboratories!

Plus all year round Air Conditioning by Arkla-Servco!

THE "LIVING CORE"

— developed by the Masonite Corporation, designed by Rudolph Matern, A.I.A., featured in New Home Guide — brings you completely flexible design to meet your needs and your budget. The "core" consists of: (1) foyer, (2) guest closet, (3) living room, (4) fireplace divider, (5) dining room, (6) mud room, (7) bath, washer-dryer area, (8) kitchen, (9) family room, sliding glass wall, (10) planter boxes.

IT TAKES TOP-QUALITY WORKMANSHIP, TOO!

Only highly skilled and experienced contractors and craftsmen using the finest, brand-name materials could produce the quality of our "Showcase" home. Every detail will stand the most careful inspection, thanks to the careful workmanship of:

A tea for the girls in the Senior Class at Hope High School was given by Chapter AE of the PEO on Tuesday, Oct. 14, in the high school cafeteria.

Mrs. Franklin Horton was in charge of the program on "The Educational Loan Fund" and "Cotley College." A clever skit about Cotley College was enacted by Mrs. Carl Hinton and Mrs. B. N. Holt.

Mrs. W. Y. Foster presided at the tea table which was covered with a cloth in attractive fall colors and centered with an arrangement of marigolds. Cookies and cold drinks were served to faculty members and about 30 girls in the Senior Class.

Tuesday Bridge Club
Meets in Coop Home
Mrs. Tom Wardlow and Mrs. Lloyd Coop were hostesses to three tables of bridge at the Coop home on Tuesday, Oct. 14. Lovely dahlias, celosia, and zinnias were used to decorate the playing rooms.

Besides the Tuesday Bridge Club other guests were Mrs. R. E.

Fine Year for Sweet Potatoes

FINE YEAR for sweet potatoes as evidenced by the grotesque pair above. These were grown by J. D. Hall of Highway 29, south and combined weight is nearly nine pounds. Several even larger ones were reported earlier by the Star. The top one has the appearance of someone sitting in a reclining position while the bottom one appears to have an arm with hand in a pocket.

meeting was opened by prayer. The minutes were read and approved. Mrs. Graydon Anthony read the president's message. Treasurer, Mrs. Al Park, gave the treasurer's report, stating that the P. T. A. paid membership was steadily growing. The P. T. A. is stating that the participation, and it is hoped by our next meeting every interested citizen and parent will be a pledged or paid member. Membership Chairman Mrs. Graydon Anthony, told the group Mrs. Merrill's 7th grade had 100 per cent paid membership at this time.

Announcement was made by the program chairman, Mrs. Homer Beyerly, of the November meeting, which will be a night meeting in order to give the fathers an opportunity to attend.

Mrs. Fred Ellis reminded the group of the Study Group Session which will be held in the Home Economics Cottage at 2:30 p. m. October 18. Mrs. L. B. Tooley will be the speaker. All parents are urged to attend this meeting.

Mrs. Homer Beyerly introduced Mr. Earl Downs who discussed the 3% sales benefits to the schools, after which there was a group discussion.

Coming and Going
James Montgomery of Coronado Calif., returned to his home on Tuesday after spending the past three weeks in Hope with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. D. Montgomery.

Bobcats Seeking Sixth Victory Tonight at 8

The Fairview Cardinals, a vastly improved club, comes to Hammons Stadium tonight at 8 for an important contest against the potent but bruised Bobcats.

Coach John Pierce will keep at least two and probably three stellar linemen out of tonight's contest. They are all regulars, Duke, Thurman and Rowe. So far as known the Cardinals will be at full strength.

Running in their places will be Tommy Jones, Teddy Messer and Joe Matt Herndon. All are very competent players but lack the experience of the starting trio.

The Cardinals will be one of the heaviest teams Hope has faced, according to program figures. Still Hope will carry a weight advantage in both the line and the backfield, but not nearly so great as when the three crippled boys are starting.

Coach John Pierce makes no bones about being alarmed as the Bobcats go after their sixth victory this season. He wasn't at all pleased with the showing of Hope against Crossett last week and has indicated, "they will have a play harder to win over Fairview" who only last week trotted out Philadelphia by a lopsided score.

Everyone Is High on Army's Pete Dawkins

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP)—The "go-go-go" of Army's top-ranked football team is a full-on, full-out midwesterner who once seemed doomed to be an inviolable factor.

Pete Dawkins of Royal Oak, Mich., struck with pollen at seven and a half 110-pounder at 13, by sheer determination built himself up to become captain and star halfback of the eleven acclaimed best in the country.

Dawkins is 6-1, weighed 187 and is swift as the wind. But his value to the 1958 Army team is measured by the showing of Hope against Crossett last week and has indicated, "they will have a play harder to win over Fairview" who only last week trotted out Philadelphia by a lopsided score.

halfback spots and Boothe at fullback.

"This boy is a born leader," coach Earl (Red) Blaik said today. "He is only 20, yet very mature. He has given us inspiration and direction."

"I trust him with more responsibilities than probably any captain I have had in the past. When I start listing the assets of this squad, one of the big ones is leadership."

The blond, clean-cut halfback, modest although he holds highest honors at the Military Academy, scoffs at his own role in the team's success to Blaik's leadership.

Dawkins, who once thought he might never walk again, has carried the ball 261 yards in three games, an average of 8.9 yards a try, and caught passes for 202 more. He has scored seven touchdowns. He also passes—left-handed.

After his polo attack, Dawkins, son of a Detroit dentist, used weights to build himself up. He played baseball as well as football in high school. He was a standout defenseman in hockey last year although he never had played the game before entering the Academy.

LONGTIME MEMBER

PEORIA, Ill. (AP)—Spry 88-year-old Mrs. Elizabeth Vinz, a member of the State Park Baptist Church for 75 years, has outlived three church buildings and helped break ground for the fourth.

Mrs. Vinz went to Sunday school at the original church site, a little wooden building.

Porkers Given No Chance to Upset Texans

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

To save a lot of unnecessary discussion on Sunday, one word will probably sum up the weekend college football activity: defense.

The only activity tonight finds Richmond at George Washington out Saturday there are several gigantic tugs of war on tap between a few of the defense-minded giants.

The offensive giants will have their say too, but they don't figure to be bothered too much.

Two of the best defensive struggles are at Madison, Wis., and Atlanta.

At Madison, unbeaten and third-ranked Wisconsin plays host to one-time Iowa in the Big Ten's top game. The Badgers' defense has yielded only one touchdown—last week to Purdue in a 31-6 victory. Iowa is fifth in total offense and seventh in rushing offense.

At Atlanta, second-ranked Auburn, first in total defense, first in rushing defense and second in passing defense, meets equally defense-minded Georgia Tech, fourth in over-all defense, in the Southeast Conference game of the day.

Top-ranked Army, known more for its offense than for its No. 3 ranking in total defense and No. 3 in passing defense, plays Virginia, which travels to West Point minus ace passer Reece Whitley. The Cadets rank No. 2 in total offense and No. 3 in passing.

Fifth-ranked Michigan State, with a 2-1 record, goes against once-beaten Purdue, ranked seventh in total defense while the Boilermakers are No. 5. The Big Ten's other top game features third-ranked Ohio State entertaining Indiana.

Sixth-ranked Navy, minus All America tackle Bob Reifsnyder, meets winless Tulane (0-4) in the Oyster Bowl at Norfolk, Va. The Middies are undefeated in three games.

Texas (No. 2) is still in the clouds after last week's upset of Oklahoma, and may get a jolt from Arkansas, winless in four tries, in a Southwest Conference tilt. Something has to give when Mississippi, eight ranked, and No. 3 in rushing defense, meets Sammy Baugh's Hardin-Simmons Cowboys, No. 2 passing team in the nation.

Louisiana State puts its 4-0 record and No. 9 ranking on the line against a tough Kentucky team (2-2), while 10th-ranked Clemson is idle.

Oklahoma (No. 11), dropped from first place after last week's loss to Texas, plays Kansas in its Big Eight Conference opener.

Notre Dame (No. 12) plays Duke for the first time in history, aiming to get some more offense started after its 14-2 loss to Army last week.

Oregon (No. 14), a defense-minded team, plays Washington State. The Webfoots are No. 7 in total defense, fifth in pass defense and eighth in total offense.

U. S. Trying to Get Chiang to Reduce Forces

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States is trying to persuade Nationalist China to withdraw some troops from its offshore islands even though officials here see little chance of negotiating a Formosa settlement with Red China.

The line of U.S. action is apparent in statements made by Secretary of State Dulles at a news conference Tuesday.

His remarks also added up to saying that this is a very delicate operation for the United States. Should it press Nationalist China too hard, the Chinese Reds might gain in their objective of driving a wedge between the United States and the Nationalist government on Formosa, which controls the Quemoy and Matsu islands off the Chinese mainland.

Dulles urged that the Quemoy crisis and other current aspects of foreign policy be kept out of political debate. He called on both Democratic and Republican politicians to "calm down." At one point, in replying to questions, he said in effect that both a weekend statement by the 24-member Democratic Advisory Council and a reply by Vice President Nixon had gone beyond the bounds of what he considers proper.

Dulles denied that the United States has any plans whatever for urging Nationalist China to reduce its military strength on Quemoy now that the Communists have extended their seven-day truce there for an additional two weeks.

He added, however, that "no doubt there are discussions that are going on" now on Formosa between U.S. Secretary of Defense Neil McElroy and others as to the most useful disposition of Nationalist forces.

He then drew a sharp line between urging Nationalist President Chiang Kai-shek to cut down on his forces for military reasons, and for political reasons—that is, in order to move toward some kind of agreement to avoid conflict with the Communists.

Dulles said the military question simply is whether it is more effective to have Chiang's forces deployed "in their present numbers on Quemoy and Matsu or to have a greater number on Formosa, which would have greater flexibility and greater range of action under certain contingencies—and they could go back to Quemoy if the necessity came."

He also spoke of the "military question" of reducing manpower and increasing the striking power of the remaining troops on the offshore islands.

The Nationalists have openly opposed any troop withdrawal, but reports from Formosa indicated they may be resigned to the idea of fewer troops equipped with better weapons.

Suspended Treasurer Gets Seven Years

BERRYVILLE, Ark. (AP)—The suspended treasurer of Carroll County yesterday was sentenced to seven years in prison on the second of the indictment charging he misused county funds.

Edwin L. Champlin, waived a jury trial and pleaded solo contempra (no contest). He was tried and sentenced by Judge Maupin Cummings in Carroll Circuit Court.

The sentence is to run concurrently with a five year term Champlin received last month on his first indictment. His commitment was held up until Jan. 15.

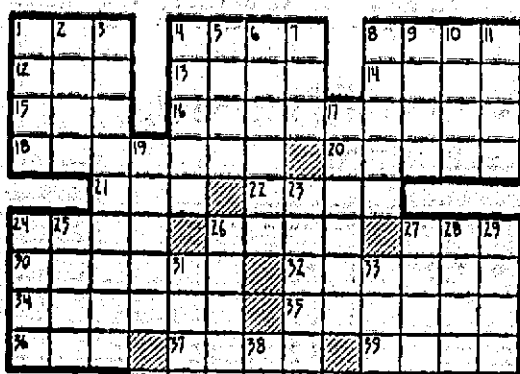

Champlin was indicted by a county Grand Jury on charges he misused funds during 1956, 1957 and 1958. He was arraigned yesterday for alleged shortages during 1957, which amounted to $6,304.88.

Defense attorneys Linva Shuman of Harrison and F. O. Butts of Eureka Springs abandoned an appeal on the first conviction. Champlin remains free under $10,000 bond for alleged shortages during 1958, on which he is yet to be tried.

The three indictments charged a total shortage of $20,039.40.

Model Home Features Gas Appliances

A modern new home, featuring manufactured hardboard in both inside and outside construction, will be open for public inspection Saturday and Sunday at 1120 South Walnut Street. Open house is scheduled from 2 to 8 p. m. Saturday 2-6 Sunday according to Jack Lowe, vice president and manager of Hope Builders Supply Co. The house will be open from 5-8 p. m. Monday through Friday, and the following weekend.

The home, sponsored by Hope Builders Supply Co., also features all-gas appliances and equipment, including year-round gas air conditioning.

The home is "The Plainsman," one of seven model homes designed by the Masonite Corporation, and being displayed in many cities in the nation this fall.

The homes are called "Showcase of Famous Brands" model homes, emphasizing new ideas in building material usage, including Masonite hardboard, and a new more livable space arrangement.

Gas features besides air conditioning with central, Arkla-Servel year-round unit that both heats and cools, include built-in range, water heater, and clothes dryer. Gaslights brighten front lawn and lanai.

Four Killed in Crash of Plane

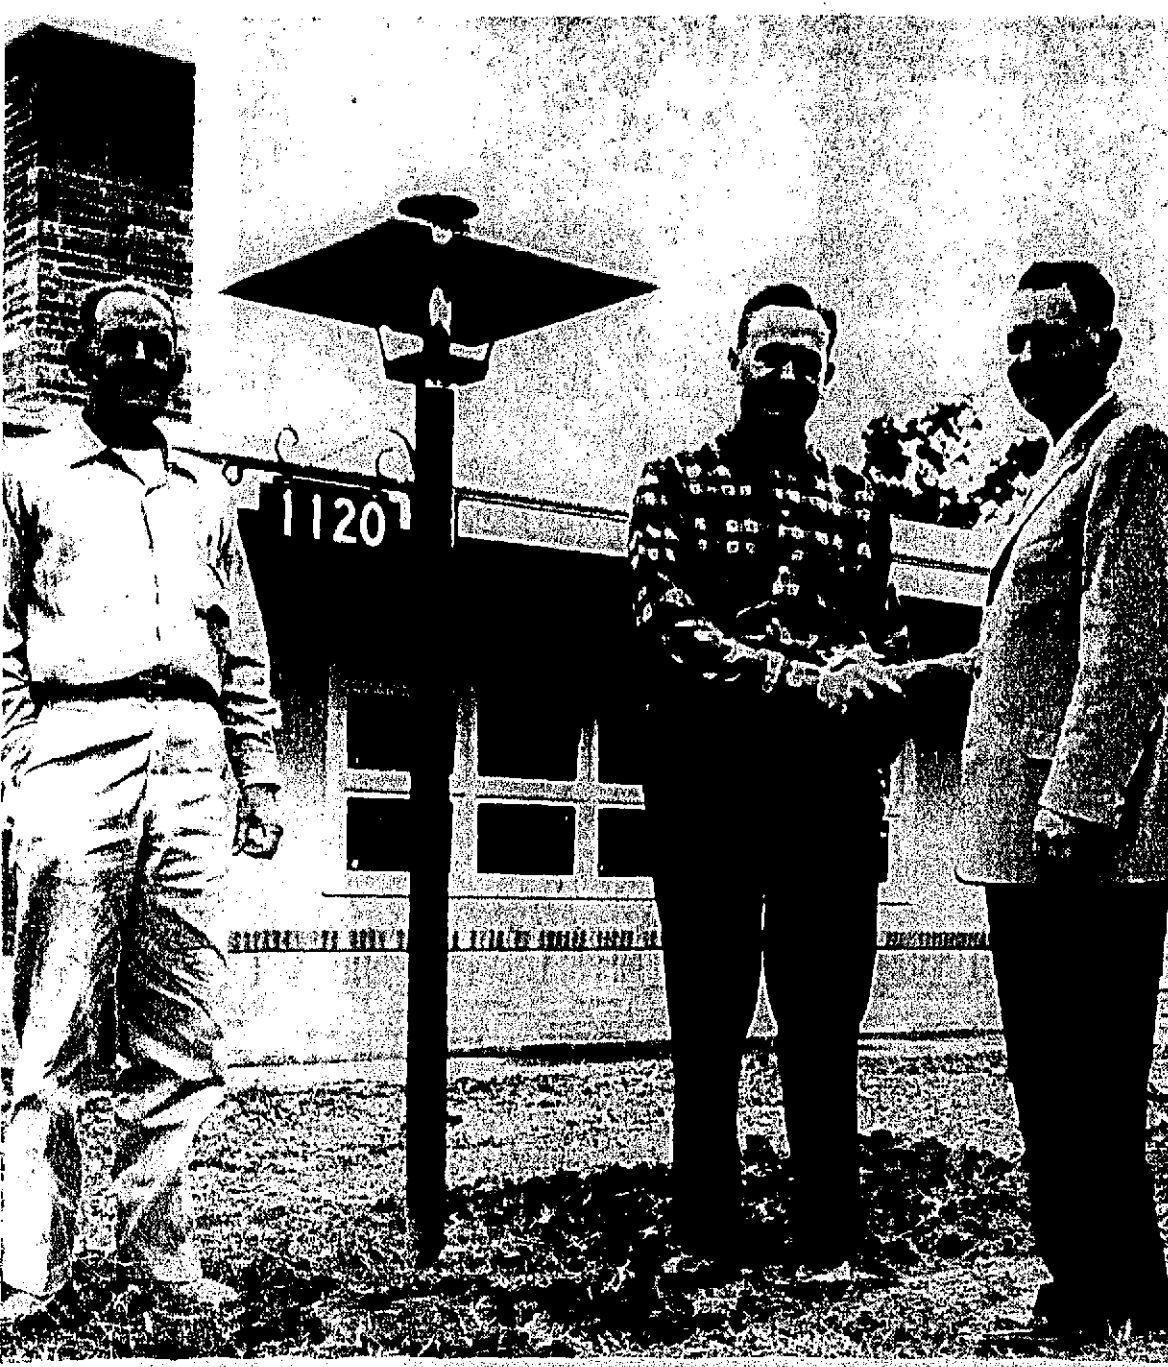

BATAVIA, N.Y. (AP)—A private plane crashed in dense fog today, killing an Air Force sergeant, his wife, and their two children.

Killed were Sgt. Francis McKinney, 31, of Jacksonville, Ark.; his wife, Anne Mae, 26; a daughter, Deborah, 4; and a son, Robert, 2. Airport officials said they had cautioned McKinney Tuesday night against trying to fly in fog surrounding the airport. He took off this morning without notifying them, they said.

The four-place, single-engine plane crashed moments later near the New York State Thruway, two miles north of here.

McKinney was returning to Little Rock, Ark., where he was stationed, state police said. The family had been visiting relatives here.

Cotton Gin Burns Near Jonesboro

MONESBORO, Ark. (AP)—The B-B cotton gin at Black Oak was destroyed by fire of undetermined origin late yesterday.

Owner Frank Barton estimated loss at $100,000.

Bill McClish, an employee, was injured slightly when a cotton bale he was moving from the loading platform fell on his foot.

Two employees discovered the fire in the gin press room. Within 20 minutes the flames had spread over the entire plant.

Black Oak has no fire fighting facilities. Firemen were summoned from nearby communities, but before they could arrive, the plant was a pile of smoldering debris. New lint cleaning machinery had been recently installed in the plant.
